

A Guide to Professional Accessories

When dressing professionally, your accessories can be just as important as your clothing. While accessories are not always necessary, it is good to have a few professional options in your closet.

Belts:

If you are wearing pants or a skirt that has belt loops, wear a belt. Simple, neutral color. Best to match with your shoes.

Bags:

Neutral colors. Best to match with your shoes. Have one of a practical size.

Watch:

Adds professional elegance to any look.

Tie:

The finishing touch to any suit is a tie. Stick with neutral colors when dressed in business professional attire. For business casual outfits, more colors and patterns are acceptable.

Scarves:

Tie a simple knot. Do not wear a winter scarf inside.

Jewelry:

Keep it simple. Small and neutral colors. Not Distracting

Padfolio:

A great option for interviews and meetings, allows you to take notes and hold your resume or other important papers.

Lint Roller:

It is useful to have a lint roller on hand to make sure you are always looking as sharp as possible. A travel size roller can fit in your bag or pocket.

Cell Phones:

Be sure to silence your cellphone during interviews and meetings!
